Wednesday - 18 January 1956

STAT 1. Met with Col. Special papers were to be prepared by various offices and submitted to the Legislative Counsel. Col. White will be the principal speaker for the Agency, with the rest of us present to answer questions if necessary.

STAT 2. Interviewed, at first alone and later with Mr. Kirkpatrick, one [redacted] who was referred to me by James Gleason of Senator Knowland's staff. After hearing his story, Mr. Kirkpatrick indicated that steps would be taken immediately to give him any back pay to which he might be entitled, and further checks will be made with the appropriate operating division as to further action to be taken.
